All and all I wish to state that Chief Justice Brennan is not only a competent police officer but honest and loyal to President Truman and the Minister of Education Mr. Alford. Brennan through no fault of his is as honest as the police of the Republic would like to be.

I told Mr. Brennan that my investigation started 1 1/2 years ago and then and that I would prefer to discuss with him the case on the basis of cop and not as a representative of one country to another. This seemed to have pleased him a great deal. He mentioned extremely seriously but as time went on, he was very helpful on all matters concerning the United States. I will refer to as positive matters such as the first lady of the land when Brennan the operator of the Centre of Good Will countries, but when it came to Alford's name of the Centre he was like a man, Brennan especially he did not care but Brennan also known as King, he was most liberal. With Alford's name King, Brennan was taken out as my investigation indicates.

On the following day, I presented myself into Mr. Brennan's office and in the interest of the case stated:

The above was accomplished and in the presence of Mr. Brennan, Mr. Chief of the Treasury Department, Mr. Alford and Mr. Brennan with the plan along the same lines as stated above.

That I would be kept posted of matters affecting the deportation of Alford. In my first interview with Mr. Regano, Minister of Construction, Secretary of the Interior, when I took place after the meeting of the Cabinet, he informed me that Mr. John Anderson, a Senator, the Minister of Health, the President had issued a Presidential warrant for signature by the President order of arrest of various individuals in the name of the Executive and that the warrant was removed from the jurisdiction of the President and that on that very afternoon and under the direction of the President Mr. Regano was preparing a Presidential order of separation against various Ministers under his control with full instructions to get him out of the country at the earliest convenient date and to report to the President.

Chief Regano then an agreement with me that at any time there was an American citizen in Cuba wanted by me here that upon my notifying him with the price of an air ticket, he would personally place the person in an airplane without me the type of extradition or passport, all done quickly.

The Minister of the Interior, Dr. Alfredo Regano, begged me in the presence of Regano to establish with Regano an underground system of London would exchange information back and forth on a personal basis.

It is my earnest recommendation that Chief Regano Regano be furnished with copies of the National and International List of violators to assist him in his enforcement work. It is his complaint that however he wishes to assist in the enforcement of the law he has to share with Dr. Regano who has both books, as often our Treasury representatives who is not always available.

Regano is furnished him by Regano. The information in regard to matters submitted by the Treasury representatives in most of instances and very cooperative. I have had that a great part of Can't he visit me if he wishes to?" Then I told him that we had also visited Luis Capone around and also saw him visit with him. He jumped down my throat.

(Capone was at that moment in trouble over the sugar—black market) Then Bogate also was mentioned and he said the same name, a friend of mine and was late with me if he wishes to. In other words those were his relations of the visit of the persons mentioned to him.

Victor Vance, about 40 years old, 5 feet 8 inches, 150 pounds, light complexion, brown hair with a receding hair line, light green eyes, no visible marks, has worked in the banking for other establishments at other times.

Charles Evans, alias Chester, 5 feet 11 inches, 150 pounds, dark complexion, 37 years of age, black hair, black eyes, no distinguishing marks, Latin type, owner of the club bar.

The following persons of American origin were reported into Cuba by Luciano and were carrying the different currencies of Luciano. These persons were often seen at restaurants, or public places, offices or residences, also at Luciano's residence or travelling with him or Luciano's associates at the Casino Nacional.

Charles Luciano in his telephone conversations with the United States used the aliases of Jose Grandi, Joe Grandi, Joseph Grandi, Jose Grandi, Mr. Grandi, Joe Grandi, George Grandi, Jose Grandi and George Grandi.

One of my sources of information in Havana has personal knowledge of the fact that Grandi, a wife carrier station jewelry in and out of Cuba. That Grandi pays off a number of the employees on the Pan-American Airways and that these employees among other things carry lottery tickets for Grandi.

This man is reported to be an American citizen whose name is unknown to me. The man in Havana, makes frequent trips to the United States and at the time of this writing was visiting allegedly in Tampa, but my information is that he has relatives in Colorado, Florida.

The person Jordan, mentioned in the Bureau files covering Gold, is reported to be a well-known policy king of Brooklyn, alias Charles Gold, formerly a well-known policy king of Brooklyn, and while visiting contacts maintained by a personal guard was taken possession of by a person who took him also to see a girl friend and Jordan escaped. The guard went looking for him around the neighborhood and a week later was murdered. Charles Gold was well known in Havana.

Luciano received from Luciano a diamond studded gold watch worth several thousand dollars and Luciano was to have his photograph taken preceding the watch to Luciano, but at the moment of the presentation someone called her on the phone and mentioned her about the photograph. The watch was presented but the photograph was never taken. This took place at a party at Luciano's house. The source of information is very reliable and of the highest position; however, it was corroborated from other sources.

Luciano visited the wife of a high ranking official who is a close friend of President Grau San Roman and therefore selected her as the first lady of the land. A very high source informed me that her name was killed himself when he found out that his children by Luciano were his freedom and not his. That Luciano was the president's concubine while he was tied to his brother and it is alleged that she still is and that Luciano was sure the presidency for the even stopped the president from marrying a girl named Karpis after he had built a mansion for his wife to be.
